Please share this information with members of your staff who make tax deposits and file related tax forms, as well as programming staff who support these functions.

On December 31, 2007, RRBLINK will be replaced with EFTPS. EFTPS is a free service from the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

You received a notice from the Treasury Department in October advising your account was established, but needed to be activated.

To use EFTPS, you must activate your EFTPS enrollment by calling 800-555-3453. You will need your business's Employer Identification Number, Bank account information, and the special Personal Identification Number (PIN) you received from EFTPS. For additional information, please visit www.eftps.gov.
